

Strengthening
Postgraduate
Supervision

We've teamed up!

The Strengthening Postgraduate Supervision course is now offered jointly by Vrije Universiteit in the Netherlands and Rhodes University in South Africa.

- Offered over five weeks
- Two synchronous classes per week
- Three a-synchronous tasks per week
- Designed for both experienced supervisors & novice academics without supervision experience
- Courses adapted to institutional & disciplinary groups
- R200 000 per course with up to 50 participants

 Social Justice in Supervision	 The Importance of Scholarship
 Supervisor Practices	 Supervision Processes

The SPS course has been offered over 70 times in 27 universities in seven countries. Watch this introductory video or visit our website to find out more.

Two new courses!

Developing Postgraduate Graduate Attributes

- Explore what graduate attributes in the CHE's Qualification Standards mean for postgraduate education
- Offered over two weeks
- Two synchronous classes per week
- Three a-synchronous tasks per week
- R135000 for up to 30 participants

Developing Postgraduate Writing

- Explore what supervisors can do to develop their students' academic writing
- Offered over two weeks
- Two synchronous classes per week
- Three a-synchronous tasks per week
- R135000 for up to 30 participants

Our courses all offer lively forums, engaged feedback from expert facilitators, and a wealth of additional resources, licensed under creative commons for your own use.

All courses are assessed, moderated and accredited.

For further information or to make a booking please contact:

nompilot@gmail.com