

How to publish your work Webinar for doctoral students and early career researchers

20 May 2024, 10:00-13:00

- What tips can I use to write my article?
- What do I need to know about publishing ethics?
- How do I choose the right journal for my article?
- How does the journal peer review process work?
- How can I publish my work open access?

If you've ever asked any of these questions, this webinar is for you!

The workshop is organised under the partnership between Wiley and the South African National Library and Information Consortium (SANLiC).

Find out more about how this partnership personally benefits you as an author at North-West University:

- Open access publication at no cost to you in Wiley journals
- Free access to all Wiley journal articles
- Free access to the Wiley Researcher Academy
